Reminiscences of Daniel Webster.

My acquaintance with Daniel Webster was begun in the court-room, where we often met. He was forty years old when he came to Bos-100 from New Hampshire. I was at that time wenty-three. Just about this time the Spanis caims came up. But I must explain them. Our merchants claimed $20,000,000 of Spain for losses suffered during the Napoleonic wars. Spain admitted their claim so far as to let us have the Floridas and pay us also $5,000,000 tesides. This sum of money was to be divided among the claimants. Three commissioners were to be appointed, before whom the claim-131s were to be heard. Parsons was employed by the Boston merchants to look after their chins-which were immense; in fact, the arger part of the whole sum-they desired Webster to be with him, and he approached him on the subject. He expressed a willingness to go to Washington. They arranged, the fee and we put the agreement in writing. If the sum recovered was so much, he was to have five per cent; if so much more, two and shalf. We went on to Washington. When we got to Philadelphia he was approached by the merchants there and asked to represent them. He asked me if I thought the Boston merchants would object. I told him I thought not, unless the interests conflicted ; if so, they would. He desired me to ascertain. I did so, and found the matter as I have stated. Welster then bargained with them. He received two thousand dollars in band as a retainer. The next day he spent this two thousand dollars in buying a silver service. He was in Washington three years in looking after these interests. At the end of the time he got ssession of the money. I called to see him, lle said, Was there not something said about a maximum for my fee, Mr. Parsons? I said to him, Yes, a great deal was said about it, and written, too. ($40,000 was the maximum axed.) Mr. Parsons, said he, the calculations are long and tedious. Just let me give checks fer 95 per cent, of the whole amount. We can arrange the calculations very well. We can first put the accounts into the hands of an accountant, and he can figure it out in a whole day and make it all plain. Well, the truth of it is, Mr. Parsons, I have spent the $20,000 long ago. Now, you arrange it for me; write and tell these men that they never expected to do this well; that this a brand snatched from the fire; and get them to take 95 per cent. I promised to do so, and did write to the leading nerchants, who controlled about three-fourths. They said. "All very well; the less creditors dare not say anything about it. You need not write to them." In drawing his checks he did deduct the five per cent. He got about $60,000 out of these claims. He then began self hopelessly in debt again. He did not seem to know that money was money. His income but he had a lage income. He once told a friend that it averaged $20,000 a year. He Then to be amusingly indifferent to money and debt. The clerk of an attorney once practicing in his office said to him, Mr. A. sent me to tell your note would fall due in a day or two. Very well, sir, said Webster. He told me to tell you that he wishes it paid. Well, st. you have done so. But he wishes me to sy to you that it shall be paid. Well, sir, you have done as he told you. Tell Mr. A. when the note is paid he shall please let me know it. hs will is a phenomenon. It is drawn up in a masterly manner, and is just such a will as he should have made—if he possessed, in addition his residence, half a million to support it. Of his greatness there cannot be the slightest but it was the greatness of power and bot of learning. He would never study a case it interested him. He was not a systematic, thoroughly-read man. He could read a book rapidly and know here of it than most persons who studied it 10 use Coleridge's phrase, "He could read it with his thumb and forefinger." He fell into a great passion for quoting Latin statences in his speeches. He did this in Parliament, who never consider a speech finished unless there is a Latin phrase put into it.

Pastor of the M. P. Church.

He knew very little about Latin. When we were on the way to Washington-the means of travel were not then as now; we had to go in value to while away the hours as we journeyed. I was reading it one day, and he asked me what it was. I told him. He siad, "Ab, that is just the proper book to bring; let me see it." I handed it to him. ed it to him, and he could translate no four consecurive lines in it.

Professor Felton used to supply him with all of his Greek quotations.

He had all the elements of real greatness but some follies also. He only seems to illustrate the great maxim, which I will not give for two feb 4 reasons-first, you might not be able to tran-Sate it and second, I would not be able to tender it in Greek, so I will give you the translation: There never was yet a very great han without some very great folly annexed to except Chief-Justice Marshall, and I will close with him, as I began, by saying that he was the of the greatest and kindest men who ever Ted - Recollections of Judge Theophilus Par-

> Mr. Samuel H. Lunt: For about five years I have been suffering with a terrible cough. Nothing prescribed for it seemed to relieve it in the least. Some months ago I secured one of "Cutler's Pocket Inhalents." It caused almost instant relief. After using it for a few weeks so marked was the improvement in my cough, that it was noticed by all my friends, and by many with whom I had but a slight acquaintance. Most heartily do I recommend its use to all who are similarly affected. Very truly yours,

Member of the Royal College of Surgery of London, Graduate of one of the most eminent Colleges in the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing at were ever known; many troubled with ringing in the head and ears when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, bashfulness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind, were cured immediately.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE. Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by improper indulgence and solitary habits, which ruin both body and mind, unfitting them for either business, study, society or marriage.

These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by the early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Digestive Func-tions, General Debility, Symtoms of Consumption. &c. MENTALLY.-The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded. Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Fore-bodings, Aversion to Society, Self Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced. Thousands of persons of all ages can now judge what is the cause of their declining health, losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, nervous and emaciated, having a singular appearance about the eyes, cough and symptoms of Consumption. YOUNG MEN Who have injured themselves by a certain practice, already described, a habit frequently learned from evil companions or at school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured, renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately. What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the pride of his parents, should be anatched from all prospects and enjoyment of life by the consequence of deviating from the path of nature, and indulging in permicious habits. Such persons must, before comtemplat-

Reflect that a sound mind and body are th most necessary requisites to promote connubial happiness. Indeed, without these the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage, the prospect hourly darkens to the view, the mind becomes shadowed with despair, and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another is blighted with our own. DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE. When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds that he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame or dread of discovery deters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of the horrid disease makes their appearance, such as ulcerated sore throat, diseased nose, nocturnal pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shin bones and arms; blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease be comes a horrid object of commisseration till death puts a period to his dreadful suffering, by sending him to that undiscovered country ' whence no traveller returns." whence no traveller returns."

It is a melancholy fact that thousands DIE victims to this terrible disease, through falling into the hands of ignorant or unskilful PRE-TENDERS, who, by the use of that deadly Poison, Mercury, &c., destroy the constitution, and incapable of curing, keep the unhappy sufferer month after month taking their noxious or injurious compounds, and instead of heing reinjurious compounds, and instead of being re-stored to a renewal of Life, Vigor and Happiness in despair leaves him with ruined Health to sigh over his galling disappointment.
